The total represents the original estimated length of the whole building. But to these were added two thirty-feet sheds, or, as they are termed in railroad phraseology, "bents," so that the total length of the depot building is close upon 1,100 feet. The breadth is 240 feet. The mole is 6,650 feet long from the Oakland shore. For a distance of 5,300 feet it is wide enough to carry four railroad tracks and a carriage-way, or a width of about one hundred feet; thence to the end of the mole it increases to a width of 280 feet. It is estimated at the offices of the Central Pacific Railroad Company that over one million cubic yards of earth, gravel and rock have been used in the construction of the mole.

Like the Opiam Eater, he first uses the drug in small quantities as a har cless antidote. The stotling influence of the drug take strong hold upon its victim leading him onto his own description. The hits of Opiam Eating and Liquor Drinking are precisely what eating is online tiveness, so over eating its inflames the soon accumulated the criveness is over-rating its inflames the soon accumulated the redoubles its cravings until the ralyzes both the stomach and appetite. So every drink I fluor or dose off our instead of satisfying, out adds to its fercefires, until it consumes the viral force and then list! Like the guttonous tape worm, it cries "Give, give, give," but never enough until its own rapacity devourables it. Samarican Northne gives instant reflect in all such cases. It produces sleep, quites the nerves, builds up the nervous system, and restores body and mind to healthy condition.
